THE CRICKET - This very pretty little drama was repeated last night at the Metropolitan, and was received with increased favor. It is a very pleasing and interesting play, carrying the attenit floated smoothly along, without jar or delay.

The characters were all well sustained, and that is after all what gives interest to dramatic representations. A leading character may do splen

LOUISVILLE, October 21, 11:30 P. M -General Jeff. C. Davis, who killed Nelson, has been rele sed from arrest and ordered to report at Cincinnati for duty. He left here this evening, Gen. Dumont passed through here this evening en route for Indianapolis. One hundred and fifty rebel prisoners from Frankfort and Lexington, and 300 paroled Federal prisoners from Cox's Creek have arrived here. They left at 3 o'clock on Monday morning and up 2 o'clock this afternoon had nothing to eat, Morgan having destroyed all the captured provisions that he could not carry away.

Morgan's men changed clothing with many of our prisoners, and his band are said now to be clothed in Federal uniforms. Doubtful rumors say that the bridges over Rolling Ford and Bacon Creek have been destroved by the rebels. Eight Commissioners sent by the Chicago Sanitary Commission, who were captured near Cox's Creek, have arrived here. Morgan's men took all their supplies. On Monday morning the rebels at Cox's Creek captured T. B. Lewis, Postmaster of Woods's division, with all his mails, containing Springfield, October 20.—A prisoner in the camp of General Rains, and who escaped at the time of the fight at Newtonia, gives the following account of the condition of the rebels on the The Rebel Forces in the southwest border. Soldiers of McBride and Parsons say they had 8,000 or 10,000 men; Rains 15,000, 10,000 of whom only were effective men; Cooper 8,000, and Coffee and Shelby from 4,000 SOUTHERN NEWS, to 5,000. The general plan of the invasion of Missouri was that the rebels would march in three colamps under command of Cooper, Parsons and Rains. The first points to be taken were Springfield, Mt. The rebel army is represented as being in a frightful condition, only about three-fourths of them are armed at all, and many that are armed are only provided with shot-guns and squirrel rifles. Our informant was amused at scores of cavalry who had large Mexican spurs buckled on their bare heels.

Provisions are very scarce among them. Bread and water with an occasional relish of beef without salt, was their principal diet.
